WELCOME

IHOC

Today, Sunday, January 11, 2015, we welcome the 12 men who will be our guests for 2 weeks until Sunday, January 25th. If you are able, please feel free to stop by and visit with the men during the evenings or weekends.

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU!

Our Christmas liturgies were all wonderful celebrations of the Feast of Nativity of Our Lord. Each lasts but an hour, but literally dozens of people put hours, in some cases, even weeks, of preparation into them. All of this effort is put forth to better enable each and every person gathered for each celebration to fully enter into that celebration and thereby exercise our common, essential ministry – that of offering together a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to almighty God!

A special THANK YOU to all of the generous parish ministers who went the extra mile to serve God's People, on this most special feast. We are all very busy at this time of year but they, and their families, sacrificed much, and often to enable them to serve. Some even served more than once for the same feast! They do not ask our applause, they faithfully serve for the glory of God and the good of His People, but in I think, in gratitude, maybe each of us could say a little prayer for each of them, and their families?

Join us for a wonderful journey of reading and discussing our next book, "Jesus; A Pilgrimage", by James Martin, S.J. This selection has been highly acclaimed by reviewers, book clubs and readers. We will read and discuss it over a three month period beginning in February and ending in April. What a wonderful way to reflect on Jesus life and message as we go through Lent!

When?: Monday, February 2, 2015

Time?: 1:00 – 2:30 p.m.

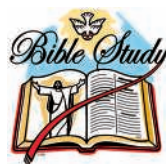

Where?: Parish Hall, Room 102

First reading assignment: Chapters 1 – 8.

"One of the best religion writers today, Father Martin has produced a remarkable combination of modern scholarship on the Gospels, his experiences on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, his own creative imagination and sense of humor, and wise advice." -Rev. Daniel J. Harrington, SJ, Professor of New Testament at Boston College

If you have any questions or would like to purchase the book, please contact Janice Rueppel at (856) 952-4616 or email her at hijan@comcast.net. Reading a great book is always a pleasure, but discussing it with others only adds to the enjoyment and satisfaction of the reading. We look forward to sharing that enjoyment with you!

Don't forget!

It's Flu Season. Please pardon my nod.

Having a cold, being concerned about catching one (or passing it to someone already ill at home) are just some of the reasons a person may, at times, be reluctant to shake hands at the Sign of Peace. Since a greeting can also be just a nod, or touch of someone's arm, we ask for (and count on) each other's understanding if the form of greeting varies, from person to person. Hopefully, this will put everyone more at ease.

We need your help to bring Christ to others!

Please consider becoming an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist.

Pre-requisites:

- At least 16 year of age
- Fully initiated member of the Church (i.e. Confirmed)
- If married, be in a valid Marriage
- Be a faithful, practicing Catholic

If you think you may be interested, please call Kathleen Rando, at (856) 424-0955, ASAP, as there will be a class held at St. Mary in March.

Eucharistic Adoration

Mondays: 8:30 AM—1:15 PM (Chapel)

Jesus is there as Man. He is there, Flesh and Blood, Soul and Divinity. He is our leader Who is always with us. Do you wonder that Catholics are exultant in this knowledge, that their Leader is with them? "I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world."

-Dorothy Day

By submitting himself to baptism, Jesus invites us to share in his relationship with the Father, announced from the heavens.
