Living Stewardship

*"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." -
MATTHEW 25:13*

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. Don't delay, how is God calling you to live your Stewardship?

Understanding the Scriptures

"But the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps." The foolish versus the wise. Today's parable sets these two groups in stark contrast to one another. Two crowds of young women wait for a wedding feast. One group comes prepared for the unexpected, the other just assumes everything will go according to schedule. But it doesn't! The Bridegroom is late, and the foolish virgins are left out in the dark--literally--while the wise ones enjoy the feast inside.

The lesson here is not just about having foresight and gathering the corresponding equipment. It's about being ready for the second coming of Christ. Jesus himself is the "Bridegroom." Traditionally, we refer to the Church as the "Bride of Christ" and we, as the people of God who constitute the Church, are even now awaiting the real feast, the culmination of time when Jesus returns. But are we standing among the wise or the foolish as we wait?

Jesus tells us today, "Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Are we spiritually awake? Do we have extra oil to see us through, or are we hitting the bottom of the barrel and running on spiritual fumes so to speak? Do we think it's enough to do the bare minimum as we wait for Christ--stepping into church without really being present, or calling ourselves Christian without really taking up the challenge of the cross? In order to avoid standing outside the feast with the foolish, we will want to make sure we fill our flasks with oil or, in other words, fill our hearts with the love of God, fill our minds with his word and his teachings, and fill our souls with the virtues that unite us to his will.

If we stock up on these important supplies, we can count ourselves among the wise! (Taken from LPI, Inc.)

PROJECT ANGEL TREE

Dear Parishioners,

For 18 years, the St. Mary G.I.F.T. Ministry has sponsored the "Angel Tree", a Christmas gift outreach to local children of families in need.

This year, the Angel Tree will be in the Gathering Space, the weekend of November 18th & 19th.

As many of you know, most of the children on the tree are from the Camden area. These children come from low income families whose only Christmas gift may be the one you give them.

On Christmas morning, all of our generous "Angels" from St. Mary will have the pleasure of knowing that they have blessed a child with a happier Christmas.

To participate in this rewarding outreach, please:

- Choose an angel and remove the wings
- Write your name & phone number on the wings
- Please remember to drop the wings in the box provided before leaving church. (Just take the angel with you.)

When you wrap the gift, please attach the angel and drop it off in the Gathering Space or Parish Hall no later than Sunday, December 10th. (We need to sort and deliver them that week.) If you have any questions, please call Loretta (856) 309-8334. Thank you, ahead of time, for your wonderful generosity.

God's blessings,

The G.I.F.T. Ministry

(If you know of a family in the Parish who could use help this Christmas, please contact Loretta. All requests will be handled with the utmost confidentiality.)

Veterans Day - Saturday, November 11th

Twas the night before Christmas, he lived all alone, in a one bedroom house made of plaster and stone. I had come down the chimney with presents to give and to see just who in this home did live.

I looked all about, a strange sight I did see, no tinsel, no presents, not even a tree. No stocking by mantle, just boots filled with sand, on the wall hung pictures of far distant lands.

With medals and badges, awards of all kinds, a sober thought came through my mind. For this house was different, it was dark and dreary, I found the home of a soldier, once I could see clearly.

The soldier lay sleeping, silent, alone, curled up on the floor in this one bedroom home. The face was so gentle, the room is such disorder, not how I pictured a United States soldier.

Was this the hero of whom I'd just read? Curled up on a poncho, the floor for a bed? I realized the families that I saw this night, owed their lives to these soldiers who were willing to fight.

Soon round the world, the children would play, and grownups would celebrate a bright Christmas day. They all enjoyed freedom each month of the year, because of the soldiers, like the one lying here.

I couldn't help wonder how many lay alone, on a cold Christmas Eve in a land far from home. The very thought brought a tear to my eye, I dropped to my knees and started to cry.

The soldier awakened and I heard a rough voice,
"Santa don't cry, this life is my choice; I fight for freedom, I don't ask for more, my life is my God, my Country, my Corps."

The soldier rolled over & drifted to sleep, I couldn't control it, I continued to weep. I kept watch for hours, so silent & still & we both shivered from the cold night's chill.

I didn't want to leave on that cold, dark night, this guardian of honor so willing to fight. Then the soldier rolled over, with a voice soft & pure, whispered, "Carry on Santa, it's Christmas day, all is secure."

One look at my watch, and I knew he was right.
"Merry Christmas my friend, and to all a good night."
