ANNUAL PROGRAM FOR MEN IN TRANSITION

Sunday, January 14 – Sunday, January 28, 2018

In January St. Mary parish will again participate in IHOC's annual Network program, our 27th year of sharing with neighboring religious communities of Camden County to provide shelter and sustenance for several homeless men striving for self-supporting independence. For two weeks (Jan. 14-28) we will provide our guests with a place to call home, a bed to sleep in, healthy meals, needed services and the warmth of welcoming acceptance by our parish family.

The St. Mary IHOC coordinating committee invites every parishioner – individuals and families, adults and youths – to participate in this worthwhile program. There are many ways to be involved; please consider one or more of the following:

Set Up: On Sat., Jan. 13, prepare parish hall for arrival of our guests. Contact Bill Schulze: 856-778-0146 (H) or 609-314-2273 (C) or captainbill76@verizon.net.

Evening Meals: Prepare, serve, and share meals with our guests and participating staff. Contact Kim Linden: linden42@verizon.net, 856-810-0879 (H) / 410-598-0238 (C).

Overnight Hosts/Companions: One night only! Two male parishioners serve as hosts/resource persons to address issues that might arise in surroundings with which our guests are unfamiliar. Father-son teams welcome! Arrive at c. 8:00 PM and remain until 6:30 AM the following morning – a bit later on weekends. Contact Bill Schulze: captainbill76@verizon.net, 856-778-0146 (H) or 609-314-2273 (C).

Transportation: Drive guests to evening AA/NA meetings, laundromat (Sat. am weekend recreational activities, etc. Contact Midge Winkel: mwink159@yahoo.com, 856-234-2390 (H) or 856-912-3737 (C).

Weekend Companionship: Parishioners spend time with guests in conversation, watching TV, playing cards and board games, etc. Contact Kathy Miraglia: miragliaj1@verizon.net, 609-369-3009 (C).

Donations: Financial support needed to purchase food (breakfasts, lunches and snacks) and clothing to augment the limited wardrobes of some guests. Offerings will be accepted following masses next weekend, November 11-12, and should be placed in identified containers in the gathering space.

SIGN-UP

Members of the Parish Coordinating Committee will be available in the gathering space next weekend to answer questions and discuss your participation. Please give serious and prayerful thought to being a part of this important parish ministry.

GENEROSITY WITH YOUR OFFERINGS OF TIME, EFFORT, AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT, WILL INSURE THE SUCCESS OF THIS VITAL SERVICE FOR MEN COMMITTED TO BETTERING THEIR LIVES.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SUCCESS OF THIS YEAR'S IHOC NETWORK PROGRAM.

"For they preach but they do not practice." The scribes and Pharisees may be the ones Jesus was speaking about in today's Gospel, but we must be careful not to dismiss his words when it comes to our own actions. Jesus offered a difficult challenge to those honor-seekers that we must also heed when he said, "The greatest among you must be your servant." This is not the way the world usually works. Generally speaking, the idea of being a servant is considered inferior to being someone who has risen to high levels of leadership or status. But Jesus wants people in positions of authority to selflessly serve those over whom they have influence. And he insists that the leaders who establish laws, rules, and guidelines do not excuse themselves from following their own directives! "Practice what you preach," as the saying goes.

Whether or not we have extensive public influence, almost all of us at certain points are in a position to exercise leadership--with our children and families, with classmates, coworkers, neighbors, friends, and sometimes strangers. When these moments arise, we are called to step into this role without being hypocrites. It's important to be sure we don't issue unrealistic demands on others that we ourselves would find it burdensome or even impossible to fulfill. This requires the virtue of humility. Instead of reveling in the authority we may have at any given moment, instead of creating "heavy burdens hard to carry and lay[ing] them on people's shoulders," we need to be ready and willing to walk a mile in their shoes, and lead accordingly. And Jesus tells us clearly that this servant leadership will be rewarded, for "whoever humbles himself will be exalted."
