Christmas Stewardship Every Day

"And the Word became flesh" JOHN 1:14A

Jesus is God's ultimate gift of love to us. The countless other blessings that God showers upon us are nothing compared to the gift of His only Son. The only appropriate way for us to respond to such generous love is with our own generous love. When we become His Stewards, we dedicate our lives to sharing all the gifts God has placed in our hands, the peace of Christ truly will control our hearts and we will know Christmas joy every day.

"She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." Today we celebrate that the prophetic dream of St. Joseph was fulfilled! Jesus is born! A Savior has come to deliver us--Emmanuel, "God is with us." Christmas is a feast of fulfillment, a holiday of deep and enduring happiness not only because God became man and was born of a woman, but because along with his Incarnation, God brought us freedom. Jesus is the long-awaited Messiah who sets us free from the misery of our own sins.

This is the ultimate gift of Christmas Day.

We exchange gifts today as a sign of our love for one another to be sure, but also as a concrete, visible way to celebrate the gift that we have first received from God. We are free people! We are not slaves but rather the children of God whose priceless inheritance is to dwell in his kingdom for all eternity. On this most festive day of the year, we are invited to exult in this fact and spare little effort or expense to show our gratitude and joy.

We only must be careful not to reduce our celebrating today to something less glorious, something less meaningful, or less profound. This is no mere secular holiday. This is not just a ritual of family gatherings, elaborate evergreen trees and sumptuous meals. Christmas is a HOLY day and as Christians it is OUR day in a most definite and undeniable way. The treats and trimmings are all signs that remind us of what lies ahead for those who accept the real gift of Jesus Christ: an unending banquet of eternal delights and divine gifts that will never fail to satisfy. Yes, Christmas is a little taste of heaven, the perfect gift that lies in wait for those who love the Lord.

Our prayer this Christmas is that you will come to know His love & mercy ever more deeply as we worship together as a community at Mass.

A blessed & holy Christmas season to you & yours!

Translating God's Love

(Adapted) by Faith Noah

God reveals His love for us in incredible ways.

Sometimes, it's through the words we hear: a homily at Mass that makes us feel like God Himself has taken over the mic to speak individually to us, or a talk that says exactly what we need to hear, exactly when we need to hear it. Other times, it's through the love we receive: a friend's support amid hard times, or a stranger's random act of kindness when we least expect it.

If we are to call ourselves Christians, odds are that at some point in our lives, Christ has spoken to us. We know the Good News.

We know the power of the Cross, a physical embodiment of Christ's sacrificial love.

Christ could very easily force His message to be heard. He could ensure that every person on earth knew of His sacrifice on the Cross. But instead, with immense humility, He lets us be His instruments. He lets us testify on His behalf. He lets us serve as active participants in His quest to make all souls aware of His love.

Jesus lights the way

He speaks to us, and then, once we have come to know His love, He speaks through us. Placing His words in our mouths, God entrusts us with a task of eternal significance: leading souls to Him.

But there's an important thing to note in this whole process: we have to receive before we can give.

To share God's love with others, we must first receive this love wholeheartedly: through the Sacraments, through (prayer) & reflection, and through opportunities to spend (reading Scripture) & one-on-one time with Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. We can't just repeat what we've been told without understanding it in our heart, or else His message is lost on us. Our mouths may be open, but our voices reach no one.

In the words of my campus chaplain, "you can't give what you don't have."

For this reason, we have to stop and listen to the Lord, taking in all the ♥ love notes ♥ He is sending us. We have to be able to look at a Cross and know deep in our hearts that Christ made that sacrifice for us individually. Only then can we look at our brothers and sisters and realize that, just as Christ loves us, so, too, does He love each of them.

God loves us. This is at the heart of all we do. If we know this, then the natural response is to love Him back, and then spread His love to all around us, offering up our voices to translate His message.

If you are reading this and don't know His love, then prepare yourself. He's reaching out to you right now, using everything around you as a testament to His love. So listen up. You'd be surprised where you can hear His voice.

If you are reading this and have any notion of God's love for you, then don't keep it bottled up. You are His translator. You are the instrument through which He wishes to play a love song to the world. Sing His praises and reach out to people, wherever they are on their walk with Him. You'd be surprised the ways He can use you.

Lord, open our lips and our mouths will proclaim your praises.
