Understanding the Sacred Triduum: What is it?

Holy Week is the most solemn and glorious week in Christianity, the pinnacle of the liturgical year...

THE SACRED TRIDUUM

Sundown on Holy Thursday to sundown on Easter Sunday is considered the most solemn part of the liturgical year. This three-day period is referred to as the Easter Triduum, also known as the Sacred Triduum, or Paschal Triduum.

Basically, the Sacred Triduum is one great festival recounting the last three days of Jesus' life on earth, the events of his Passion and Resurrection, when the Lamb of God laid down his life in atonement for our sins...

It is known as the "Paschal Mystery" because it is the ultimate fulfillment of the ancient Jewish Passover (or Pasch), which itself was a recollection of how God brought the Jews out of their slavery in Egypt. The spotless lamb was slaughtered at the Passover meal and consumed, and that night the destroying angel "passed over" the homes marked with the blood of the Passover Lamb, and those covered by the Blood were saved. This was the Old Testament prefigurement of Jesus' work at the Last Supper—where he inserted himself as the Paschal Lamb—and Calvary, where the sacrifice was offered to save us from our slavery to sin.

The Paschal Mystery is, therefore, God's plan of redemption for the fallen human race through the Passion, death, and resurrection of God-made-man, Jesus Christ. It is one marvelous event stretched out over three days. Here is a breakdown of each of the three days that make up the Easter Triduum:

HOLY THURSDAY

The evening Mass on Holy Thursday is referred to as The Mass of the Lord's Supper. This is where the Church remembers the institution of the Eucharist and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at the Last Supper, as well as the institution of the priesthood, which took place the evening before Jesus was crucified.

After the homily there is an optional washing of the feet ceremony, ... "to remind us that as Christ's disciples we are all called to humble service." Extra hosts are consecrated at this Mass to be used on Good Friday when no Mass will be celebrated.

The Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday concludes with a procession of the Blessed Sacrament to the "altar of repose", a place where the consecrated host is kept other than the main altar where Mass is normally celebrated. Because of the Last Supper, Holy Thursday is a day especially given to adoration of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist; many parishes will have Eucharistic Adoration at this altar of repose late into the night.

GOOD FRIDAY

Good Friday is a mandatory day of fasting and abstinence. This is the day of the crucifixion, the day Jesus died for the sins of the world. The parish altar looks very different on Good Friday, it is plain and bare. There is no consecrated Host in the Tabernacle at the main altar of the church; it was carried away on Holy Thursday night to the "altar of repose" to signify Jesus' death. The candle by the Tabernacle is blown out, and the Tabernacle doors are left open to show that it is empty. Jesus is gone. This is quite dramatic, highlighting that Good Friday is a solemn day of prayer and mourning.

The ceremony on Good Friday is not a Mass, but rather a communion service using the consecrated hosts from Holy Thursday. It often takes place at 3pm, the hour that Jesus breathed his last on the cross. Veneration of the Cross also takes place at this service, processing to kneel before a cross and either touching it or kissing it. Often the priest will begin the service prostrate in front of the altar.

HOLY SATURDAY

On this day Christ is in the tomb. There is no daytime Mass on Holy Saturday. It is still a day of fasting and sorrow, the final one before the Easter Vigil begins, that evening. We remember, with Mary and the disciples, that Jesus died and was separated from them for the first time as he lay in the tomb. The faithful often continue their Good Friday fast through Holy Saturday.

In the Apostles Creed we pray "He descended into hell" (Hades, the abode of the dead) which describes what Jesus did in the time between his burial and Resurrection. Jesus descended to the realm of the dead on Holy Saturday to save the righteous souls, such as the Old Testament patriarchs, who died before his crucifixion. The Catechism of the Catholic Church calls Jesus' descent into the realm of the dead "the last phase of Jesus' Messianic mission," during which he "opened heaven's gates for the just who had gone before him." Before "Easter", there were no souls enjoying the beatific vision of God in heaven!

EASTER VIGIL / EASTER SUNDAY

A vigil service is held after nightfall on Holy Saturday, ... in celebration of the resurrection of Jesus. This is called the Easter Vigil, the most glorious, beautiful, and dramatic liturgy in the Catholic Church.

The vigil is divided into four parts...: 1) the service of light, 2) the liturgy of the Word, 3) the liturgy of Baptism, and 4) the liturgy of the Eucharist. This is also the Mass where many in RCIA are brought into full communion with the Catholic Church...

Easter Sunday is what we've all been waiting for! The 40 days of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving during Lent was in preparation for this day, when our hearts and souls can drink in deeply the culmination of the Pascal mystery: the Resurrection.

"Therefore Easter is not simply one feast among others, but the 'Feast of feasts', the 'Solemnity of solemnities', just as the Eucharist is the 'Sacrament of sacraments'. St. Athanasius calls Easter 'the Great Sunday' and the Eastern Churches call Holy Week 'the Great Week'. The mystery of the Resurrection, in which Christ crushed death, permeates with its powerful energy our old time, until all is subjected to him." (CCC #1168, 1169)

G.I.F.T. Book Club Offers
Reflective Reading for Holy Week!

Our monthly book for this April will be the Seven Last Words: An Invitation to a Deeper Friendship with Jesus by James Martin, SJ. Once again, we have chosen the New York Times bestselling and award winning author who will provide us with a better understanding of our relationship with Our Lord. Martin writes a series of meditations on the seven sayings of Jesus from the cross. These meditations "reveal not only Jesus's love and forgiveness, but also why we can confidently turn to Him with our worries, fears and even doubts". Cardinal Timothy Dolan writes the book is "Spiritually rewarding and uplifting". Sister Helen Prejean, CSJ, author of Dead Man Walking, writes, "This insight alone makes this book worth reading: Jesus endured suffering, so he understands ours." Reading this for Holy Week will enhance our spiritual journey toward Easter! Come and join us!

Date/Time: Monday, April 10th, 1:00 - 2:30 pm

Place: Hall, Room 102

Call: Janice Rueppel, if you need a book or have questions, at (856) 784-4591 or email her at hijan@comcast.net.

BLOOD DRIVE DELIVERS
MUCH NEEDED 92 PINTS

The March 30, 2017 Blood Drive, held in our Parish Hall, produced 92 productive pints for the American Red Cross Blood Bank. These donations were sorely needed as the Blood Supply in our Region was in crisis mode due to lower than usual donations in the month of March, exacerbated by impact of the snowstorm a couple of weeks ago. That storm kept people from attending Blood Drives and cost our Region nearly 500 potential donations. The Red Cross was very appreciative of our result.

Many thanks to those of you who donated and even to the many who came and tried, but could not donate due to low iron or not feeling well. Thanks to our entire committee of donor recruiters for their diligence in sending emails and making phone calls and even manning the sign-up table after Masses on the weekends leading up to Drive Day. We were especially proud that the entire drive proceeded smoothly with an even flow and no back-ups! A job well done by the Red Cross staff and managers.

PARISH INFORMATION

Sacrament of Baptism: Celebrated on the 1st Sunday of the month at the 11:30am Mass, and on the 3rd Sunday at 12:30pm. Parents are required to attend a preparatory session. Please make arrangements in advance through the Parish Office.

Visitation & Anointing of the Sick: Please call the Parish Office if a family member is seriously ill, facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound.

Marriage: Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program. Please contact the Parish Office one year in advance of the wedding date.

Funerals: The proper form of Church burial for a baptized Catholic is the Mass of Christian Burial, not a service at a funeral home. The Mass is the greatest prayer of the Church.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA): The RCIA is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never baptized, those baptized in another faith, and Catholics who have not received First Communion and Confirmation. For more information, please contact Kathleen Rando, Pastoral Associate.

Liturgy Committee meets the second Tuesday of the month (September through June) at 7:00pm in the Parish Office.

Parish Pastoral Council meets throughout the year as an advisory board to the Pastor. Next meeting: May 18, 2017 in the Parish Office Meeting Room. If you would like to address the Council, please email us.

Catholic Grade School: Resurrection Catholic School, 402 N. Kings Highway, Cherry Hill. Principal: Sister Lydia Etter, OSF, (856) 667-3034.
