STEWARDSHIP

6/5 Weekly collection $8,943 205 envelopes
6/5 Online giving $310 8 families
May God bless you for your generosity!

The Stewardship lifestyle is one of service, putting God first and to "love one another." Unfortunately today, many people have "passion" for activities they enjoy - their job and off-work activities. Many times our "passion" to excel is at the expense of someone else. We need to focus on a little less passion for our individual concerns and a lot more compassion for others.

HOUSE OF CHARITY UPDATE

Our current total is $114,480. We have superseded our goal of $103,460. Thank you for your gracious support! The Campaign still continues, so if you would like to contribute, there is still time! Questions? Please call the Parish Ctr.

SAINT MARY MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Catholic community of St. Mary, are empowered through Baptism, guided by the Gospel and nourished by the Eucharist. The Altar & Ambo flowers this weekend are dedicated in loving memory of Harding Farrales
requested by Farrales-Fernandez families

This woman gave everything she had to Jesus in her courageous display of public repentance.

The flask of ointment, for starters, was undoubtedly very expensive. Thus she honored Jesus with the best gift she could give. But more than this external offering, the woman also "gave" Jesus her tears. She wept for her sins, for the hope of forgiveness, and for the love of Christ. She literally poured herself out before Jesus as she revealed the depths of her soul. Also, to wipe his feet with her hair was to give the gift of her humility. Simon the Pharisee, on the other hand, had exactly that problem. Jesus used the opportunity to distinguish between those who love much, and those who love little. The self-righteous, like Simon, have little room in their hearts for love of others because they are so full of the love of themselves. They feel they have nothing to repent for. This woman, however, acknowledged her weakness humbly and was all the more ready and willing to love.

We, of course, are challenged to be as generous, courageous, and humble as this sinful woman. We are called not to compare our sins to others' that are "worse" than ours, but rather to honestly recognize where we have failed. Then, like this woman, we can show great love to Christ by giving him the very best of what we have.

Celebrating the Jubilee Year of Mercy

December 8, 2015 to November 20, 2016

Forgive Offenses Willingly

"Forgiveness isn't an event, it is a process." Knowing that forgiveness is a process and not just an event reveals why it is so difficult to forgive. We want it to be over and done with in a single moment, but in reality it takes a serious emotional and spiritual commitment.

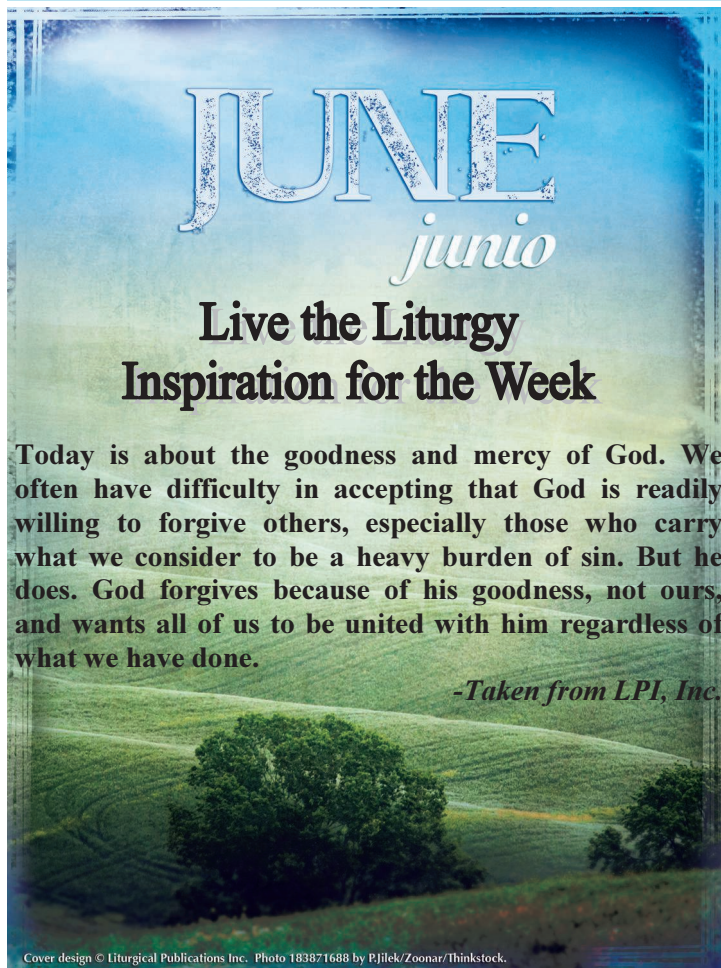

While difficult, there are few skills more important in life than forgiveness. There isn't a person on the planet that hasn't needed to give forgiveness.

To help us forgive, Father Mike Schmitz offers a three-step process on how to forgive. Here is the order he prescribes:

1. Acknowledge that there is something to forgive.
2. Count precisely what an individual has caused you.
3. Don't say it's ok or what they did doesn't matter. Count the cost and then make a decision to release them of their debt.

Forgiveness frees both the forgiven and the forgiver. Those who are unwilling to forgive are burdened by an unshakable misery. This is a fate that robs us of the joy and the peace we so desperately seek.

-Adapted and taken from DynamicCatholic.com & Father Michael Schmitz

Today is about the goodness and mercy of God. We often have difficulty in accepting that God is readily willing to forgive others, especially those who carry what we consider to be a heavy burden of sin. But he does. God forgives because of his goodness, not ours, and wants all of us to be united with him regardless of what we have done.
