Stewards Follow Jesus

"If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me." LUKE 9:23

We are not very good at "denying ourselves" in our society. Our current economic situation is evidence of what happens when people think they can have everything they want. Jesus calls us to Stewardship where we set our own personal "wants" aside so that we have the resources to follow Him instead.

Please remember in your prayers, our beloved deceased

Efrain Rivera (wife of Irmina Rivera)

and his family and loved ones....

The Altar & Ambo flowers this weekend are dedicated in loving memory of Bob Dwyer & Hugh Donohoe

we need to set aside time
and space
to pray

LPI, Inc.

"Once when Jesus was praying in solitude, and the disciples were with him..." The first line of today's Gospel presents a strange image. Jesus was both by himself and with others. He was somehow experiencing the solitude of personal prayer, but was also close enough to his followers to engage in conversation with them.

Although we don't know exactly what the details were of this situation, it does suggest for us an example of what we might call spiritual "balance." Here we see Jesus taking time to be alone in prayer, but also taking time to engage in spiritual reflection with the other members of his community. He didn't sacrifice one for the other. He found a way to have both.

We are called to do the same. Developing the habit of personal prayer is an essential part of our spiritual lives. Like Jesus, we, too, need to set aside time and space to pray by ourselves, connecting as individuals with our Father in heaven. Whether it be a few quiet moments in the morning, or time to pray at night, this kind of prayer keeps us connected to God. It enables us to give our own answer the poignant question Jesus poses today, "But who do you say that I am?" Personal prayer alone, however, is not enough to fulfill us spiritually. We are also meant to participate in the larger community of believers, joining together with others in communal prayer and reflection.

This, of course, happens every time we attend Mass, as we gather together at church and join in the liturgy. For some, "sacrificing" our Sunday mornings, week after week, may seem like too much to ask. But this is one way we can carry out the challenging command of Christ to take up our cross and follow him.

FATHER'S DAY BLESSING

Blessed are you, Lord and Father of all Life, who have given us the fathers of our families
as a sign of Your own love and protection.
We ask you to bless all fathers this day. Grant to our fathers who have gone from this life the eternal happiness of your kingdom.

Bless the fathers here with us with Your strength and Holy power.

May the members of their families assist and support them with respect and deep affection.

Bless all fathers, Lord,
with happiness and good health,
with peace and good fortune.
Strengthen and guide their ways
so that, having shared of their very lives with their family, they may one day live forever with You.

We ask all of this through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

Each year dioceses around the country arrange special events to highlight the importance of defending religious freedom. The Fortnight for Freedom is from June 21- the vigil of the Feasts of St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More—to July 4, Independence Day.

Let us pray...

You will that all people should be free to worship you without fear and to celebrate their religious beliefs freely, even if they have not yet found You.

Grant that those of us who live in this great nation will thank You daily for our freedom, and work for the freedom of others around the world that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly and proudly.

We seek Your wisdom where hatred abounds, and ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear and bondage. We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin and death through the wood of the cross. Amen.

Live the Liturgy-Inspiration for the Week

Many believe that happiness is found in building up our earthly lives, achieving success, and fulfilling of our hopes and desires. Jesus tells us that this is not where happiness is found at all. Our true sense of purpose and well-being is discovered when we lose our lives, not protect them! We find salvation, and our true self, when we daily take up our cross and lose our lives. That is, sacrificing our own needs out of love for God and our brothers and sisters. -from LPI, Inc.
