Stewards rewarded in Heaven

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." LUKE 14:13 -14A

We have a difficult time with the concept of giving without expecting something in return. Even when we give to charity we often want something in return – a raffle ticket, a dinner, or a chance to play golf. Yet, as Christian Stewards we need to remember that the true reward for our giving awaits us in heaven.

R.C.I.A. = Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

ARE YOU SOMEONE OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO...

Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?

*Has a child over the age of 7 who has not been baptized?
Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?*

For information, please contact: Kathleen Rando (856) 424-0955 or Loretta Repici (856) 309-8334

"When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." Today Jesus instructs us to be generous enough to serve others without expecting repayment. At least, without expecting to be repaid in THIS life. It's interesting that the Gospel concludes with Jesus' promise that if we follow this teaching, we "will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." In other words, God will "repay" our generosity on earth by welcoming us into heaven. Really, what better investment could there possibly be?

It can be tempting to think of our money as purely our own. We work hard to earn it. Or we receive it from others who wanted US to have it. Or luck came our way (and too bad for you that it didn't come your way). We thus feel possessive of our money and often struggle with the idea of giving it away or lending it without hope of being paid back (with interest!). But today's Gospel challenges us with a different perspective. In essence, Jesus tells us to use our money for the sake of others, not just to assure our own earthly comfort. As difficult as this request may be, it's important to remember that Jesus honors the sacrifice! This is why he promises repayment in heaven. He understands that it "costs" us a great deal to part with the security of using our money for ourselves alone. He understands that in caring for the poor, we risk putting ourselves in their company.

But God's ways are not the ways of the world. Instead of investing everything in a bank, Jesus asks us to invest in the poor. After all, no bank on earth can possibly provide the infinite rate of return that Jesus promises.

The G.I.F.T. Ministry Book Discussion Group's September Selection!

Come and join us as we read noted author Sue Monk Kidd's third novel, The Invention of Wings! The book tells the enthralling story of a 19th century, Sarah Grimke, and her relationship with her same age slave, Hetty "Handful" Grimke, over a period of 35 years, in Charlestown, South Carolina. Both owner and slave strive for the same life goals of freedom and empowerment, often having a strong effect on each other's efforts. The book is inspired by the real life story of abolitionist and suffragette Sarah Grimke and thus gives credible insight into the struggle of slavery and the status of women in our northern and southern states, in the mid 19th century. The Washington Post declares the novel to be "Exhilarating...powerful...By humanizing these formidable women, The Invention of Wings furthers our essential understanding of what has happened among us as Americans—and why it still matters."

If you would like to join us, mark your calendar for Monday, September 12th at 1:00 pm in the Parish Hall

If you have any questions or would like to purchase a book, call Janice Rueppel at (856) 784-4591.
