FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one." - Jn 10:27-30

Stewards Filled with the Holy Spirit

"The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." ACTS 13:52
Because the disciples heard Our Lord's call, they were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. Stewards, too, can experience that same joy if we take time to open our hearts, listen to God, ask for His direction and allow the Holy Spirit to guide our lives and our decisions.

Please remember in your prayers, our beloved deceased Forrest Lane (father of Kathleen Turley) and his family and loved ones....

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Jesus said, 'My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.' How blessed we are to be the "sheep" of such a Good Shepherd! Jesus promises that "I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." When we follow the voice of our Shepherd, he leads us exactly where we want to go. But, of course, it's up to us to make sure that we recognize this voice.

In today's culture, many voices are competing for our attention. The voice of the media is a loud one, entering our homes and families through television, the Internet, print materials, and so on. We are also more and more a culture whose ears are literally filled with the voices of our favorite singers and the sounds of our personal playlists--the sight of people marching through their day with earphones blocking out other sounds is now a common sight. All of this has its appropriate place. We simply need to be sure that we don't allow these voices to become the primary ones in our lives.

To hear the voice of Jesus, we need to encounter his word in the Bible where he speaks to us loud and clear. We need to fill our ears with the message of the Gospel, to listen attentively to the prayers and preaching at Mass, and to "tune in" to the teaching of the Church and of the Holy Father, which is easily available to anyone these days through those same media outlets mentioned above.

All of these things will help us to stay close to our Shepherd, and to avoid going astray into regions where we might get lost in spite of ourselves.

Jesus promises of those who hear his voice and follow him that, "No one can take them out of my hand." When we stay near the Lord, we can rest assured that he will fulfill his promises.

God loves us and wants to have a close relationship with us. In fact, he loves us so much that he took an extraordinary step in order to make that possible: He became one of us. -from Find a Real Friend in Jesus, Minute Meditations, Franciscan Media

Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love)-Released April 8, 2016

"Pope Francis' "love letter to families" invites everyone to grow as members of the family of God—a love letter inviting all of us, and especially married couples and families, to never stop growing in love. It is also a love letter calling the Church, the family of God, to realize more and more her mission to live and love as a family.

Pope Francis is calling us to enter more deeply into the beauty of marriage and Christ's teaching. The Holy Father is giving us an active opportunity to reflect upon how each of us can belong more deeply to Christ."

"To The Martyrs"

A Pertinent Book for our Times!

Our G.I.F.T Ministry Book Discussion

Group has selected a very timely book for us to read this Easter Season!

"To The Martyrs" by Cardinal Donald Wuerl, Archbishop of Washington, is not only an historical account of how Christians have been persecuted and martyred since the time of Christ until present day, but it is also a reflection for all of us on the impact of all those sacrifices on our lives and what are we doing about the atrocities that are happening now! For instance, did you know that there were more Christian martyrs in the 20th century than all of the other centuries combined?

Join us as we reflect on the information that Cardinal Wuerl gives us, and learn about what we can do to help. The book is small in length, so it would be easy to read and discuss at our next session, Mon., May 2nd, 1:00-2:30 pm, Rm 102, Parish Hall. Please contact Janice, if you have any questions or would like to order a book at (856) 784-4591, or hijan@comcast.net.

“We Present our Gifts to the Lord”

To present the gifts on behalf of each and every one of us is both a right and privilege. This is part of the ministry of the assembly; the priesthood of the laity; part of our full, active and conscious participation in the celebration of the Mass.

Because of great significance of this presentation, children alone would not be appropriate but families – even if not everyone is carrying something – are certainly welcome. Perhaps, you’d like to do so at a Mass with an intention of a loved one or a special occasion?

You can sign up in advance with one of our Ministers of Hospitality/Ushers, to present the gifts at a given Mass. They will be happy to help you!

“Spring into Good Shape with Cindy!”
