reminded us of our responsibility to those less fortunate. This is a tremendous opportunity to help our brothers and sisters in South Jersey.

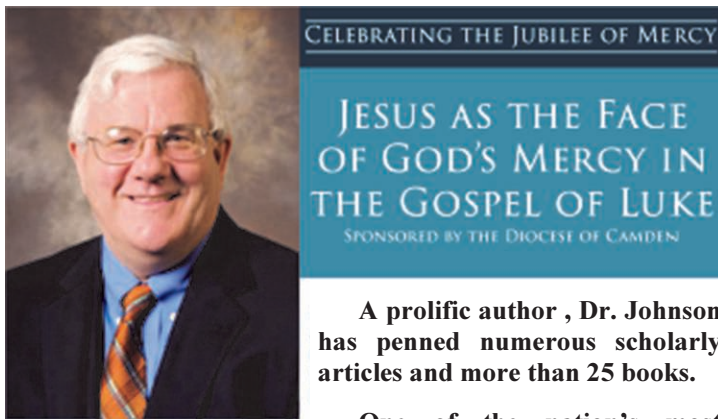

Many of you have already received letters from the House of Charity. If you have not already received your letter from the House of Charity, it will be forthcoming. We know that contributing to the House of Charity will require a sacrifice on your part. Please know that your gift will be greatly appreciated by the many who will benefit from your generosity. Our first "In-Pew" Sunday will be February 6th-7th.

January 31st: Pray for the people of Syria.

Almighty eternal God, source of all compassion, the promise of your mercy and saving help fills our hearts with hope.

Hear the cries of the people of Syria; bring healing to those suffering from the violence, and comfort to those mourning the dead. Encourage Syria's neighbors in their care and welcome for refugees. Convert the hearts of those who have taken up arms, and strengthen the resolve of those committed to peace. O God of hope and Father of mercy, your Holy Spirit inspires us to look beyond ourselves and our own needs. Inspire leaders to choose peace over violence and to seek reconciliation with enemies. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Prince of Peace and Light of the World, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

MERCY MOMENTS

CELEBRATING THE YEAR OF MERCY

December 8, 2015 to November 20, 2016

The cross is a reminder of how much....love Jesus had for a sinful humanity. One's cross may be heavy because she is abandoned; another's heavy because he has lost a loved one; and for others it is heavy because they have taken on the pain of evil. Jesus shows "that evil will not have the last word"; love, mercy, and forgiveness will be victorious. "From the cross we see the monstrosity of [human] kind when it lets itself be guided by evil. But we also see the immensity of the mercy of God, who doesn't treat us according to our sins, but according to his mercy." Pray that you may find strength in the trials of your cross, and live in the hope of God's resurrection and love.

-(Adapted), Pope Francis, April 18, 2014
