Stewards Trust God

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." - ROMANS 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you believe that all things work for good? Stewardship is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, means that God's plan for our lives may be different than our plan. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

Come, experience the reconciling embrace of Christ, through the Ministry of His Church!

Gospel Meditation

"When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it." Jesus today gives us the image of a merchant who knows he has discovered a great treasure. In fact, its value is so tremendous that the man is willing to sell EVERYTHING else in order to possess it. Why? Because he knows it will all be worth it. He knows that the pearl will bring him more reward than anything else he has ever owned, more even than all his possessions combined.

This Gospel story is meant to help us understand the unfathomable value of the kingdom of heaven. Nothing else can compare to it. No material item, no honor or success, can compete with this pearl of great price. Everything we have, short of this, is FINITE: limited, temporary, and ultimately fleeting. Eternal happiness, on the other hand, is INfinite. It never ends. This is the deep contentment, the satisfaction, the peace, and happiness that we crave, the kind that doesn't disappoint.

Like the merchant in the parable, we too should understand the value of this discovery. As Christians, we have "found" the treasure beyond all other treasures! Life in Christ, both now and in heaven, is truly the pearl of great price. The only question is whether we are willing to "sell" all that we have to obtain it. In other words, are we willing to release the other things that claim hold on us? Are we ready to put Christ first in our lives? All of us need to take pause from time to time and examine our attachments and priorities. Money, pleasure, success, or comfort can often seem so important to us that we falsely begin to imagine these things will bring the happiness we so desire. But the message is loud and clear today: the kingdom of heaven is the true treasure we long for. (Taken from LPI, Inc.)

JUST SAYING! The "IHOE Pack a Sack Drive" STARTS NEXT WEEKEND!!

Purchase a child size backpack and fill it with back-to-school items such as pens, pencils, notebook paper, ruler, folders or any type of school supply that you think a child could use. Along with the school supplies, we also ask you include a package of child size underwear or socks. New underclothes are always a welcome item. We'll be distributing these items to the various homeless shelters in the area. Cash gifts are accepted, they will be used towards purchasing school supplies.

Disciples of Mercy Awards

Throughout our diocese, there are so many Catholic women and men in our parishes who are actively responding to Christ's call to practice mercy. These individuals and groups usually work tirelessly and quietly. They feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, care for the sick, welcome the stranger, shelter the homeless, visit the prisoner, and more. They do it without expecting any sort of recognition or praise. But their witness is worth lifting up and celebrating.

These awards will recognize one individual or small ministry group per deanery who exemplifies mercy by reaching out to those who are poor and vulnerable. They will be presented alongside our main honoree, Cardinal Joseph Tobin, at the Justice For All Dinner on Wednesday, October 11, 2017.

We are calling for nominations of individuals or small group from Diocese of Camden parishes who are involved in the ministry of mercy, whether through a parish-specific project or in collaboration with a local, national, or global social service/humanitarian agency. Names can be submitted using the online Disciples of Mercy nomination form at

<http://catholiccharitiescamden.org/disciples-of-mercy/>

When considering nominees for the Disciples of Mercy Awards, please keep these award criteria in mind:

- Active members of the parish community who are NOT employed by the parish or diocese
- Engaged in a bold, creative, effective ministry rooted in the mercy of Jesus Christ that includes personal contact with those who are poor and vulnerable
- Inspires other parishioners to get involved in the ministry
- Sees and respects the God-given dignity of every human person, treating those they serve as equal brothers and sisters
- Has shown a long-term commitment to accompanying those who are poor and vulnerable through their ministry.
