Pre-prayer! Pre-prayer!

Why not prepare for next week's Mass by reflecting on next Sunday's Scriptures? Have a blessed week!

Next Sunday: May 17, 2015

Acts: 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26/1

Psalms: 103:1-2, 11-12, 19-20

John: 17:11b-19

He Chose Us First

"It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain." We sometimes tend to believe the opposite. It's not unusual for us to think, "I have chosen to be a Christian," and then to imagine that the process really started with us, that it was our initiative, our decision to believe, our act of faith that got the ball rolling in our spiritual life. Of course, our decision is important, but Jesus reminds us today that he is actually the one who took the first step. He chose us. He called and invited us to be among his followers and friends. As the second reading tells us, "God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him." That happened first. The next step is ours, to accept this life that is offered to us through our own act of faith.

Stewards Love Jesus

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends."
-JOHN 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we should be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we are His Stewards and we love Him.
