The Journey with Jesus Continues!

Did you ever read a book that you couldn't put down? Did you think about it even when you weren't reading it? Did you tell your friends what a great read it was and they should read it as well?

The G.I.F.T. Book Discussion Group is in the middle of reading such a book! It is called Jesus: A Pilgrimage by James Martin S.J. Father Martin shares his journey through the Holy Land, stopping at many locations where Jesus preached, taught with parables, performed miracles and faced his Passion, Death, and Resurrection. His detailed research and descriptions make us feel like we were there. Fr. Martin always gives an insightful reflection on each step of the journey, causing us to better understand Jesus' words and actions. Join us as we discuss the second half of the book. Come, even if you have not read the book! After all, you know the stories! Or, just come and listen! It would be worth your while. Call Janice Rueppel at (856)952-4616, if you have any questions or would like to purchase this book. We will be meeting

Time: Monday, May 4, 2015, 1:00 to 2:30 p.m.

Where: Parish Hall, Room 102

Reading Assignment: Chapters 15 - 20

National Day of Prayer

Please join us Thursday, May 7th at Noon.

The service will start outside the church (weather permitting) and then process into the church. Father Ed will lead our prayer, joining it to others praying throughout our country. The very brief service will conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

We so hope that you will join us!

Celiac Disease and Holy Communion

Celiac Disease and some Thyroid conditions can make receiving communion for some people extremely difficult, if not impossible. St. Mary now has a limited amount of Low Gluten hosts, already consecrated, in the tabernacle at Mass, each weekend. These hosts, made by the Benedictine Sisters contain an infinitesimal amount of gluten (.002) and, have been shown, generally, to not affect those suffering from these conditions. If you need low gluten hosts, please:

- Be seated in the section of pews on the Window Aisle, on the left side: (near the Icon of Mary).
- Try to be near the front of the Communion line, and just say "low gluten" to the Communion Minister, before receiving.

Our supply of consecrated hosts are limited at each celebration so, we ask you to please utilize this opportunity for medical needs only. That way, we can ensure having enough for those who absolutely need them. Thank you!

Parish Nursing Ministry: May is Mental Health Month

"What's wrong with me, I just can't snap out of it". Does this sound familiar? Is it "The Blues" or clinical depression? Some of the warning signs of clinical depression are loss of interest or pleasure in your family life, difficulty concentrating, sleeping too much or sleeplessness, loss of appetite, frequent or unexplainable crying spells, and recurrent thoughts of death.

Your doctor can refer you to a mental health counselor or prescribe medication to relieve symptoms. The good news is that depression, over time, is easily treatable.

"Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

- Jn 15:4-5

STRONG FAITH, STRONG FAMILIES

Catholic Charities' Year of the Family newsletter for the month of April is now available online on the agency's Year of the Family website:

www.CatholicCharitiesCamden.org/YearOfTheFamily.

This month's theme is Young Adults. The letter features two articles aimed at the unique concerns of this population: one from the director of Catholic Charities' asset development programs on financial planning as a young adult; and the other on the unique challenges faced by the young adult veteran population from the director of veteran services. We're also remembering autism awareness month in this issue with a short listing of opportunities around the Diocese to get involved.

The letters are one way Catholic Charities is celebrating the Diocesan-wide Year of the Family leading up to Pope Francis' September Philadelphia visit. We're also offering speakers from among our staff of experts who are available to give presentations at your parish or event. For more about how Catholic Charities is celebrating the Year of the Family, speaker scheduling information, and to subscribe by email to the electronic newsletters, visit Catholic Charities' Year of the Family website.

Preparing for Marriage? Engaged Encounter is a weekend away with other engaged couples which allows plenty of time alone as a couple to dialogue about your prospective life together. This weekend satisfies the Pre-Cana requirement for marriage preparation.
