23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue." Jesus could have healed this deaf man another way. He could have spoken a powerful word or, for that matter, just silently willed that the man's health be restored. It wasn't uncommon for Jesus to cure people simply by a quick touch. But instead, Jesus chose to heal him in this unique way. He made it a private event, one that involved an unusual kind of physical ritual.

Clearly, this was not for Jesus' sake. And since it was away from the crowd, it wasn't for their sake either. This particular healing was for this particular man. For whatever reason, Jesus knew that this man needed these signs--touching his ears and putting saliva on his tongue--in order to be freed of his inability to hear and speak well.

Jesus knows what we need. His care for each and every one of us is not some standardized package of generic charity. He loves us all as unique individuals and understands us. He sees our weaknesses and knows our strengths. He offers himself to us as an intimate friend, not an unfamiliar acquaintance. When we come to him with our hopes, our fears, our desires and needs, he hears and answers us ... in the way he knows is best. It might seem odd. It might be unexpected or different from what we have seen him do for others. But we need to trust, even when we are desperate for "healing," that Jesus does care, that he does listen, and that he does act on our behalf.

Let us have confidence in today's Old Testament proclamation from Isaiah:

"Thus says the LORD: Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God ... he comes to save you." by LPI, Inc.

Novena Prayers for Peace

The Small Christian Communities at St. Thomas More have extended an invitation to the parishioners of St. Mary to attend a "Novena for Peace Through the Immaculate Heart of Mary" from Tuesday, September 8th through Wednesday, September 16th. The Novena will include prayers to Our Lady, Queen of Peace, a rosary, litany and special prayers for the Pope for his upcoming visit to Philadelphia. The Novena times will be as follows:

Weekdays: 7:00 p.m.

Saturday: Following the 9:00 a.m. daily Mass

Sunday: Following the 11:30 a.m. Mass

If you plan to attend any of the sessions and would like to lead the group in a decade of the rosary, please contact Marian at 856-424-2053 and leave your name and phone number as well as the date you would be willing to help. Thank you for your consideration and attendance!

40 Days of Francis Countdown: Day 20

Pope Francis quote of the week: "To love God and neighbor is not something abstract, but profoundly concrete: it means seeing in every person the face of the Lord to be served, to serve him concretely. And you are, dear brothers and sisters, the face of Jesus."

Knot of the week: As of January this year, 200 veterans are homeless in the Diocese of Camden. This week in our 40 Days of Francis we remember the homeless, and particularly homeless veterans, in our Diocese. As Pope Francis' visit to Philadelphia gets closer, let's challenge ourselves to help untie the knots of poverty we find in the Diocese of Camden.

For more information on the Pope's visit, please visit www.francisfestival.com

It will only take one hour of your time to give the gift of life. In order to maintain an orderly flow and speed the donation process, we ask that you register for an appointment time. You may do so when called or emailed by our volunteers, after any Mass in the Gathering Space, or by phone to Ron Von Stetina at 856-424-3051.

BIBLE STUDY RESUMES!

Wed., September 23, 2015 @ 10:00am, Parish Hall

This year, in addition to continuing our exploration of how the Scriptures were written and the incredible depth of their meaning, we will keep in mind the upcoming Jubilee Year of Mercy, as well as the milestone 50th anniversary of the end of the Second Vatican Council.

How? We will especially focus on examples of God's mercy in the Bible, and especially as found in the Gospel parables. Most especially, we will see how mercy is the entire thrust of Jesus' life and mission.

In deference to the Council anniversary, we'll also explore how the Scriptural roots of our present day Sacraments, celebrate and express God's mercy in our lives, and especially how Baptism calls us to be His mercy and presence for others.

So, please plan to join us. Newcomers are always welcome! If you have any questions, please call Kathleen (856) 985-9665.

Check it out!

Our Gathering Space bulletin boards often announce information that cannot be fit into the bulletin. Please stop by and take a look when you come to Mass each weekend. You may find an interesting event happening in and around the Diocese.

Stewards Rich in Faith

"Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?" (JAMES 2:5B)

What is more important – being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society teaches us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we live in Stewardship we are rich in faith knowing that material things really do not matter and we are willing to share what we have.
