Understanding the Scriptures

Christian author C.S. Lewis once wrote that Christianity is not so much about being nice people but in being "new men." We see this contrast in today's Gospel. "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus first answers in the predictable way. Follow the commandments! "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Perhaps for some of us it's easy to answer this way. "I'm a good person!" he seems to reply. Does he truly follow all the commandments he professes to follow? Does he -- in word and deed -- check off all the boxes of the moral law? Perhaps. Whether he's being honest or fudging the truth, Jesus accepts his answer at face value with compassion. "Jesus, looking at him, loved him."

But he's not done yet! Jesus wants to remind us that this attitude alone is not enough. "Go, sell what you have then come, follow me." Jesus' invitation to the young man is radical. Abandon everything that gives you any sense of security. Give it all up for an unknown future with a wandering preacher.

The Christian life is not easy. "How hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!" It's easier, Jesus says, for a gigantic camel to squeeze itself through a tiny needle's eye. But the God of the universe creates out of nothing, breaks the bars of hell, and raises the dead to life. Is a needle's eye really such an obstacle? Jesus' invitation is always bigger than our own limitations. This week, what do we need to offer up? How is Jesus inviting us to follow him? (LPi, Inc.)

Recognizing God in Ordinary Moments

I often times say in prayer, "Grant me the wisdom to see Your will for my life and the courage to follow that will." It is a request for true discernment to see that God's will is always more important and fruitful than my own will. It is easy to fall into the trap of thinking happiness and fulfillment lie in doing what I want to do and following my own wants and desires. Our entire secular culture is filled with that message. However, that road has led too many to a place of emptiness and regret. I must pray to keep in the forefront of my mind that God created me on purpose and for a purpose.

Being wise enough to see that purpose is the key to true satisfaction in this world.

Giving of our gifts and talents in only ways we want to means that we become deaf and blind to the numerous times Jesus Christ calls us to give. We also easily avoid any form of real sacrifice, which often leads us to give only from our excess. Wisdom allows us to see where we are being called, even if we are unsure what increase will result from our investment. Our trust is no longer in the gift given but instead in the One who is calling us to give. When our lives of generosity and compassion are ordered in this way, it is hard for anything to steal our joy away. Our purpose is found, our aim is true, and our desire is fulfilled.

ST. MARY "ALL SOULS" REMEMBRANCES

Special Remembrance Mass

This year's annual Remembrance Mass will be celebrated on Friday, November 2nd, at 7:00pm. This special Mass is for all of the members of our parish family, who have died this past year. During the Mass, we will mention each person's name and light a candle in his/her memory. If you would like to include someone, please contact the Parish Office, as soon as possible.

Parish Remembrance Book

Our Remembrance Book is in place in the Gathering Space. We invite you to list there the names of your deceased loved ones who died this year, whether from St. Mary, or not. Every person listed will be especially remembered in the intentions at the weekend Masses at St. Mary.

All Souls: General Intercessions

Those loved ones listed on our All Souls envelopes will be read in the General Intercessions at each Mass, a few at a time. Due to a large number of names we anticipate, we will not be able to tell you exactly which Mass your loved one's name will be said, but you will know that sometime in the month, at either a daily or Sunday Mass, their name will be said aloud in the General Intercessions. Extra envelopes are available in the Gathering Space. For more information, please contact the Parish Office at (856) 424-1454 or stmarycherryhill@gmail.com.
