Living the Liturgy: Inspiration for the Week

"As a disciple, an extremely important question must always take precedence in decision making. What does God want me to do? In discerning answers to life's questions and difficulties, it doesn't matter what humans permit or even what popular choice dictates. It is what God says that matters. God's will is often dismissed, even by those who claim to believe in Him. We discern God's will by developing a strong and mature prayer life, listening to Scripture and church teaching, consulting church tradition, paying attention to the rhythms of life, and seeking His presence in all we experience and observe. As Jesus realized in his final hours, it is "not my will but Yours be done." Are we ready to follow his example and give ourselves over to what God wants? (LPi, Inc.)

A Perfect Gift

Read the full version at usccb.org/perfect-gift.

Soon after the birth of my son Charlie,* who has Down syndrome, a visitor asked whether he was “mild, moderate, or severe”—referring to his level of cognitive impairment. I was shocked. In my arms I held my beautiful baby boy, who defied easy categorization.

It’s like looking at stained glass from the outside: the colors look dark, and you can’t see the figures. But inside, with the sun shining through, the effect can be brilliant.

From inside our family, love illuminates our life with Charlie.

What may seem dreary to others, perhaps even unbearable, is actually filled with beauty and color. Our love has nothing to do with his abilities. We love him simply because of who he is, and understanding this teaches us a fundamental truth: every life is a good and perfect gift.

Caring for Loved Ones at Life’s End

Read the full version at usccb.org/endoflifecare.

We are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when loved ones approach life’s end, we may not know how to provide compassionate care. Surround your friend or family member with love, support, and companionship that are “anchored in unconditional respect for their human dignity, beginning with respect for the inherent value of their lives” (To Live Each Day with Dignity, USCCB).

Learn about these 10 tips at usccb.org/endoflifecare.

1. Invite God in.
2. Listen.
3. Inform yourself.
4. Be steadfast in compassion.
5. Help them achieve closure.
6. Provide opportunities for resolution.
7. Reminisce.
8. Provide a peaceful atmosphere.
9. Show tenderness.
10. Bear their transition patiently.

Bridges of Mercy for Healing after Abortion

Read the full version at usccb.org/bridges-of-mercy.

Maria,* Vanessa, Li, Jennifer, and Darryl are among the tens of millions of Americans whose lives have been directly touched by abortion. Like so many others, they have experienced regret, guilt, and grief. But, as they have also experienced, God’s healing love and mercy are always possible.

Many Catholics want to help women and men who have experienced abortion, but some don’t know how to begin. Visit usccb.org/bridges-of-mercy to learn how people from various walks of life can assist friends, family members, fellow parishioners, clients—or perhaps even themselves.

Also, be aware that the U.S. Church’s Project Rachel Ministry for healing after abortion offers confidential, compassionate help. Visit HopeAfterAbortion.org.

ST MARY "ALL SOULS" REMEMBRANCES

Special Remembrance Mass

This year's annual Remembrance Mass will be celebrated on Friday, November 2nd, at 7:00pm. This special Mass is for all of the members of our parish family, who have died this past year. During the Mass, we will mention each person's name and light a candle in his/her memory. If you would like to include someone, please contact the Parish Office, as soon as possible.

Parish Remembrance Book

Our Remembrance Book is in place in the Gathering Space. We invite you to list there the names of your deceased loved ones who died this year, whether from St. Mary, or not. Every person listed will be especially remembered in the intentions at the weekend Masses at St. Mary.

All Souls: General Intercessions

Those loved ones listed on our All Souls envelopes are traditionally remembered throughout the month, in our intentions. The names of those listed on these envelopes, will be read in the General Intercessions at each Mass, a few at a time. Due to large number of names we anticipate, we will not be able to tell you exactly which Mass your loved one's name will be said, but you will know that sometime in the month, at either a daily or Sunday Mass, their name will be said aloud in the General Intercessions. Extra envelopes are available in the Gathering Space.

For more information, please contact the Parish Office at (856) 424-1454 or stmarycherryhill@gmail.com.

The Book Club will begin the 2018-2019 year with a true story selection about pain, betrayal and brutality along with unexpected life changing love. It is the book, "Same Kind of Different as Me" by Ron Hall and Denver Moore. The story matches a dangerous, homeless drifter with an upscale art dealer, united by a gutsy woman with a stubborn dream. "The friendship that forms between these two men at a time when both were in great need is an inspiration to all of us to be more compassionate to everyone we come in contact with." --Mrs. Barbara Bush. Please join us for what promises to be an interesting discussion:
