Convocation of Catholic Leaders The Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey

Recognizing the gifts God has given to the laity, Bishop Sullivan has called on pastors to form lay delegations to be sent to a four day convocation aimed at building up missionary disciples to create stronger communities. The Convocation of Catholic Leaders: The Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey, to be held March 2019, will give these 650+ lay leaders the tools to foster a sense of discipleship not only in their parishes but in the larger community. Please pray for these pastors and lay people that the Holy Spirit enables them to return to their parishes renewed and ready to lead others to Jesus, the Joy of the Gospel.

Convocation of Catholic Leaders: Quote for the week:

“Now is the time to say to Jesus: ‘Lord, I have let myself be deceived; in a thousand ways I have shunned your love, yet here I am once more, to renew my covenant with you. I need you. Save me once again, Lord, take me once more into your redeeming embrace.’”

Recognizing God in Ordinary Moments

I wish I were a better steward. I would like to think I am a pretty generous person, and I do work hard to cultivate the characteristics of a good Everyday Steward in my life. However, stewardship is about more than giving. It is also about prudence and wise planning. It is about storing up grain for the lean years and making sure there is enough oil to light your lamps when the power goes out. If I were a better steward, I would have that $1,000 emergency fund to dip into when I need a car repair. I would save more for retirement and vacation. I would have more food in the garage freezer because I bought more on sale and prepared for when money was a little tighter. In a nutshell, I would be prepared for whatever comes my way, good or bad.

Advent is a time of preparation. We not only prepare for Christmas, but for the day when Jesus Christ returns again. Unfortunately, we too often act like this is the only time to prepare for such events. We should be preparing all throughout the year.

The wise steward is always cultivating their faith and working to improve their relationship with God. They know that they need to be prepared for anything at any time. They stand ready, waiting for the call of their God. (Adapted- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS)

Social Justice News

NJ Attorney General has issued an immigration order limiting cooperation with ICE. It prohibits local police and jails from joining the federal program known as 287 (g) that deputizes local authorities to do work ICE usually does - unless the AG signs off on the agreement. This order reportedly bars local law enforcement from honoring ICE detainer requests. This order is making NJ a fair and welcoming state. A phone call or brief note to thank the Attorney General for this order would show your support.

TLA (To Live Again)

TLA is a bereavement support group that meets on Monday evenings, at 7:00pm, at Resurrection School. It's not a structured process, so you can come when you can, and, you can come when you're ready, whether that's two days, or two years, after your spouse has passed. No one knows how you feel better than someone who has been there. God often works through others to heal us. Come, and find comfort in the sharing. For more info, please call St. Mary parishioner, Bob Tell, (856) 424-4847 & leave a message. He'll get right back to you.

FOREVER YOUNG THANK YOU!

The Forever Young Ministry wishes to thank Dr. Charles Esposito for his generous donation to the Thanksgiving for the troops event. Dr. Esposito has dental offices in Moorestown & Medford.

St. Mary Prayer Shawl Ministry

Next: Thursday, January 3rd at 1:00pm in Room 103 (Hall)

Members spend enjoyable time together making prayer shawls, baby blankets and other items, offering their work and talent as prayer. Their finished products are then blessed and given, representing the prayer and concern of our parishioners, to those in need. Don't know how to knit or crochet? Don't worry, they'll teach you! See you there!
