Easter 2018

"Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come see the place that he lay. II Mt 28:516

Dear Parishioners,

After experiencing the traumatic events surrounding Jesus' suffering and death, Mary Magdalen and the other Mary came to the tomb at dawn on the first day of the week. They never expected the turn of events that was about to unfold. The large stone sealing the entrance to the tomb was still in place with two guards positioned to insure that no one could steal the body. "And behold, there was a great earthquake and an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, approached, rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was like lightning and his clothing was white as snow. The guards were shaken with fear of him and became like dead men." With the guards subdued, the angel invited the women to look into the empty tomb. It was true, he had been raised. Somehow and inexplicitly, Jesus not only rose bodily from the dead, but escaped bodily from the confines of the sealed tomb. As they ran off in great joy to tell the other disciples, Jesus met them on their way.

The reality of the Glorious Resurrection is the pinnacle of our Easter celebrations. However, to truly experience its joy as did the women at the tomb, we too, are invited to participate in the events leading up to the Alleluia chorus on Easter Sunday. Holy Week begins as we commemorate Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem as the long awaited Messiah with the shouts of "Hosanna" and we participate in his Passion on Palm Sunday. On Holy Thursday, we respond to his call to service in the Washing of Feet, his institution of the Sacraments of Holy Orders and the Eucharist and our humble response by Adoring Him in the Blessed Sacrament. We walk with him to Calvary on Good Friday for the remission of sins and to embrace the cross of our salvation. On Holy Saturday, we shatter the darkness of sin and death with the light of the Easter fire, the light of Everlasting Life, and we recall our baptismal promises to reaffirm our desire to live in the light of Resurrected Life.

May you and your family experience His saving love in the Sacred Liturgies of Holy Week and may the joy of the Resurrection be received in your hearts. Enclosed is a schedule of all events. Have a Blessed Easter and may the call of Jesus lead you to the table of God's Children Eternal, in Heaven!

Father Paul

KICK OFF WEEKEND MARCH 10TH/11TH

To all of the good people and friends of St. Mary,

As you may have heard, a major campaign is underway at St. Mary. Catholic Strong, the Campaign for the Catholic Community of South Jersey, is seeking to secure a minimum of $50 million, which will primarily benefit our local parishes. Seventy percent of the funds that we raise will be allocated for our own parish needs and thirty percent will fund the diocese's coordination and support of various ministries. The mission of this campaign is to ensure that our parishes are financially stable and allow the diocese the opportunity to address long-term and extraordinary needs so that our Church will have the strength and stability to serve future generations of Catholics.

Understanding the Scriptures

Why is the world the way it is? We all wonder that from time to time. Each successive generation projects rose-hued longing on the past and casts furtive glances at the impending future. We see forces beyond our control in nature and in the newspaper. The world is changing and we're being pulled out with the tide.

In the face of this confusion, today's Gospel features one of the most oft-quoted Scripture verses of all time: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." But if Christ has come, why is the world so challenging? Why is the world still - to our eyes - being carried off in a proverbial hand basket? Jesus' response is a deeply personal one. "This is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light." Patterns arise, habits are formed, and systems become engrained, but each is the result of an interconnected web of human choices.

Where do we stand? Our answers, perhaps, vary from week to week, hour to hour, missed traffic light to spilled coffee to teenage child's rebellion. The world isn't perfect because we aren't perfect. Our parish is flawed because we're flawed. Our families need work because every one of us needs to be converted. Christianity is a process, not a destination!

This Sunday, Jesus invites us to consider our own lives. Where in our own lives do we prefer darkness to light? What flaws are we trying to hide? Humbly acknowledge those places today. Ask God for the grace to be transformed. Share with your spouse or a friend where you'd like to improve this week. "Whoever loves truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God." Taken from LPi, Inc.
