HOUSE OF CHARITY
BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

The House of Charity – seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. It ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs so needed in our area. We really need your help to make our goal this year! Our goal is $106,047. Our current amount is $69,503. If you haven't yet contributed, will you prayerfully consider it? Thank you for your generous support!

He is Risen, indeed!

The joy of the Easter festivals is meant to be a celebration of the promise of everlasting life. We begin Easter with the Sacred Paschal Triduum which encompasses the Solemn Liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Saturday. Then, we begin the Great Easter Octave, (which is eight days), beginning on Easter Sunday and extending to the following Sunday with the understanding & bestowal of our Lord's Divine Mercy. The Easter season then continues for 50 days and includes the festivals of the Ascension of our Lord and the birth of the Church on Pentecost Sunday. This extended period of time is meant to foreshadow the eternal joy of everlasting life. We come together for these Solemn celebrations to become one with each other and to be in communion with the Eternal Trinity in Heaven.

Here at St. Mary we invite all to share in the joys of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. These Sacraments bring us into full Communion with the Body of Christ. He is Risen and so, too, are we. May the blessings of Almighty God, protect you , your family ,and your loved ones. And may the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ in His Passion, Death, Resurrection, & Ascension into Heaven reign within our minds and hearts. Happy Easter!

Fr. Paul

Understanding the Scriptures

The first light of Easter dawn had begun to creep over the horizon. The steadfast women from Friday's gory events are returning again to the body of their Lord. "Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" How quickly we return to mundane concerns and how thoroughly God wants to surprise us! Imagine the utter shock upon seeing the stone rolled away, the tomb empty, and a stranger clothed in light proclaiming the impossible. "You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here." He is risen indeed and the world will never be the same.

We know from other Gospel passages that Mary Magdalene made haste to the disciples to proclaim the Good News.

We know that Peter and John rushed to the tomb to see for themselves. We know that the wonder and awe of the Resurrection permeated the lives of the apostles until their own dying day.

Can we comprehend the utterly world-changing nature of this surprise? The historical reanimation of a dead man is of no real value to us. But we know that Easter Sunday is so much more. By the Resurrection of Jesus, life has triumphed over death for us all. The gates of heaven are opened and the treasury of graces is poured out upon the here and now.

This Resurrection Day, let us draw near, amazed yet unafraid, to the risen Christ. Let us recall the words of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, "Jesus is not a character from the past. He lives, and he walks before us as one who is alive, he calls us to follow him, the living one, and in this way to discover for ourselves the path of life"

(Easter Vigil, April 15, 2006). Taken from LPi, Inc.

Walk in a Relaxed Manner by Joyce Rupp

In her recent book, Rupp takes us on the journey she experienced, at age 60, when she walked the 500 mile Camino de Santiago in Northern Spain, an ancient pilgrimage route, that is well traversed today. As she compares the ups and downs of our daily lives to the lessons she learned on her challenging walk, she hopes her writing will "...stir up fresh enthusiasm for your life as they have for mine." It is not too late to join our discussion, even if you were unable to be there for the first session. It has been very enlightening so far!!

CATHOLIC STRONG

CAMPAIGN FOR THE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY OF SOUTH JERSEY

As you may have heard, a major campaign is underway at St. Mary. Catholic Strong, the Campaign for the Catholic Community of South Jersey, is seeking to secure a minimum of $50 million, which will primarily benefit our local parishes. Seventy percent of the funds that we raise will be allocated for our own parish needs and thirty percent will fund the diocese's coordination and support of various ministries. The mission of this campaign is to ensure that our parishes are financially stable and allow the diocese the opportunity to address long-term and extraordinary needs so that our Church will have the strength and stability to serve future generations of Catholics. 70% of the campaign funds that we raise toward our parish goal will be used at St. Mary for:

- Replacement of Church & Hall HVAC systems
